

At 8¹⁰ P.M. Dec. 1, 1963 Robert Borchardt ^{sp} called this office from 5th floor of city jail (charged with Sub. Forg. & hold for Hamilton T. D.) and ^{said he wanted to} talk to a Det. about some information about Jack Rubenstein @ Jack Ruby. I got this person out on a tempo. and talked to him - he states he is in jail for Forg. & has been filed on. He states the following people are his friends and he has been talking to them in jail and on streets before he got into jail. The following are the people he got his information from:

Elmer Dalrymple was 38

Lawrence Miller was.

Perry Hydell was.

Marvin Fraizer was.

He states the above four subjects work for a man named Fred - unk last name - has calling names of "Big Rango" & "The Grover".

Borchardt says this Fred works for a group out of Chicago, Ill. & that he runs stolen cars & guns to Mexico & brings
